Economy Expressed In Fall Clothes

Copyright 1918
The Herald Publishing Co.

Good clothes cost more today, there is no getting around the fact. By lowering our Quality and Value Giving Standards, we could offer cheaper clothes, but we shall stick by the guns of Quality for our customers best interests and our own.

Kuppenheimer's Clothes, Knox Hats, Patrick Mackinaws, Nettleton Shoes, Dutchess Trousers and other standard makes of Fine Wear for Men, carry out this policy to the letter. They evidence how good clothes can be made, and not how cheap. They make a strong appeal to the man who knows and wants real value and that true economy is gauged by Quality, not price.

CLOTHES ASKED BY RED CROSS

In order that the local public may know what kind of clothing is desired and what is not desired by the Red Cross for the suffering refugees, the following suggestions are made:

Woolen goods of any kind whatever are acceptable; soft hats and caps for all ages, and sweaters of any kind and size.

Men's shirts and pajamas, so worn or shrunken as no longer to be serviceable are particularly welcome, as the material can be utilized for making children's garments.

Do Not Send

Garments of flimsy material, or gaudy coloring, ball dresses, high heeled slippers, etc.

Stiff hats; either men's or women's straw, dress or derby.

Raincoats, rubber boots or anything containing rubber.

Note—Rubber boots can easily be removed from shoes.

Books, toys, soap, toilet articles.

Notes or communications of any sort or description must positively not be sent.

The gathering of the clothing will be under the direction of Mrs. S. R. Martin and will be received at the room at the west of the Orpheum theater during the afternoons of this week from 1 to 6 o'clock. It will also be collected from the various school houses in the city.

If some who have gifts to make are unable to deliver them, they are asked to phone Mrs. Martin and arrangements will be made to have them brought in.

soldiers was brought out in an interesting way. The officer declares that the soldiers can only stand the terrible bombardment for a few days without going insane, and that the reason so many Germans have been captured is because they are compelled to stand before the Allied bombardment until their minds are gone.

Following Major Hamilton's address, J. J. Simpson, a prominent Oregon patriot and political leader, made a soul stirring appeal for the support of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Poised to the last degree in his oration, equipped with a magnetic voice and appearance, and apparently imbued to the depths of his soul with the subject he treated, Mr. Simpson made a talk such as has been seldom heard in this country. In describing the mothers day parade at Greater Paris on Saturday night, Mr. Simpson paid a most beautiful tribute to his own mother and to the millions of other mothers of the nation who are today bravely making the supreme sacrifice.

Locations of Discordant Races in Crumbling Austrian Empire

Germans, with the active aid of the Hungarians, control the Austrian empire, despite the fact that they are numerically inferior. Bohemians, Czech-Slovaks, Slovaks, Jugoslavs, Poles, Croatians, Roumanians and others are almost in open revolt against the ruling races. The conquest of Serbia and Roumania, while adding nothing to the empire, also adds more discordant elements bent on revolution. Whatever may be the outcome of the war, European politicians believe the empire is doomed.
